SECTION SIXTEEN: ELIM STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe:

The Bible is the inspired Word of God.

The Godhead exists in an eternal trinity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Church is made up of all persons who have been regenerated by the Holy Spirit and made new creations in Jesus Christ.

That all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and that through the death and risen power of Christ, all who believe and confess Jesus as Lord can be saved from the penalty and power of sin.

That our Lord is the baptizer in the Holy Spirit, and that this baptism with signs following is promised to every believer.

That Jesus will return again for His Church.

Believers in Jesus Christ will produce the fruits of His Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23).

The Church should claim and manifest the nine gifts of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:8-10) God has given some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and some teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of ministry, and for the edification of the body of Christ (Ephesians 4:11-12).

Marriage is the legal, moral and spiritual union of one man and one woman to the exclusion of all others, voluntarily entered into for life. God intended marriage to be a partnership of mutual love, respect and honour, and that it is the biblical context for God's gift of sexual intimacy. Marriage between one man and one woman is the ideal and God-intended context in which to conceive and raise children. (Genesis 2:24).

The Minister must live a life which displays adherence to the teachings of the Bible and Elim's statement of faith. The minister must live a life worthy of our Lord Jesus Christ by living in accordance with standards of biblical morality and Christ-like character, and by seeking to grow in the knowledge of God. The standards of biblical morality dictate that a minister must not engage in sexual immorality, including sexual relationships outside of the marriage relationship, or homosexuality. A minister must not be a thief, a coveter, a drunkard, a person who secures money or favours by intimidation or the misuse of authority, or a worshipper of idols. A minister must not marry persons other than a heterosexual couple. (Colossians 1:10, 1 Corinthians 6:9-10).

In the resurrection of the dead, the eternal happiness of all true believers in Christ and the eternal punishment of all Christ rejecters.

We believe in the following ordinances:

Partaking in the Lord's Supper, in memory of our Lord's death and imminent return.

Baptism by immersion for believers.

The laying on of hands.

The anointing of the sick with oil.

Declaration – I have read and agree with the above Statement of Faith.
